MOTION: Joyce Carson made a motion, seconded by Amanda Moore to return to open session. All aye. 6-0-0

Mayor announced discussion took place but no action taken.

ADJOURNMENT

MOTION: Anthony Cox made a motion to adjourn the special meeting, seconded by Craig Owen. All aye 6-0-0

After adjourning the Special Meeting, the caucus portion was convened.

Nick Timon was present for the Police Department stating they had been busy with the holidays. Now that Cairo was fully activated, they would be addressing the drug issues more.

John Lucas was not present but had submitted his report and wanted to convey that in the event of extreme cold and weather conditions, the fire house would be available as a warming shelter if needed.

Keene Dougherty reported there had been an ammonia issue with Rumpke but getting it resolved. This happened when the weather turned cold. He had an issue with the raw water meter, but that too had been repaired.

Richard was not present due to weather conditions and addressing water leaks. Meeting with HMB on Wilson Street issues.

Ramona Williams reported the audit had been completed and forthcoming.

No other comments, meeting ended.

It was reported the Wilson Street sewer project would be wrapping up this week and due to the plant closing for the year, the blacktopping would have to wait until Spring.

A special meeting will be held prior to the caucus meeting on January 2 for a 1st reading of the new RV Ordinance. Also due to the Newly Elected Officials Academy the 15-17 of January, another special meeting would be announced.

Brian Reid wished to thank his fellow Council members for making him feel so welcome and to the public for their support.

Amy Hurst also wanted to thank the public for supporting her over the years, and gave especially the new members the advice of always doing their own research on topics; no matter who you know and trust it pays to find the facts for yourself. She appreciated the friendships over the last eight years of her time on Council.
